

Seek the Son Ministries

Summer 2012

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and his love is made complete in us. (1 John 4:7-12 NIV)

Praises & Prayers

Seek the Son Ministries celebrated its 7th anniversary in August. Praise God for how He is using Seek the Son to reach the disabled community and reconcile them to the body of Christ.

Please consider partnering with Seek the Son: prayerfully, financially and/or through volunteering to further the work God has planned.

Praise: The first two chapters of Theresa's thesis have been approved and she is now considered a Doctoral candidate.

Pray for stamina for Theresa to move forward in her doctorate.

Pray for Ken as he studies for the IRS certification exam.

Pray for family and friends as we travel down this road of thyroid cancer.

June found us traveling to Dallas to participate in the National Federation of the Blind's annual convention. What an outstanding time of learning and networking. We presented at a workshop hosted by the Community of Faith Division. We want to thank them for allowing us to share a half hour of the program. After speaking with other blind people, it is obvious the need to help both churches and the disabled to work together still remains a huge priority.

July found us traveling to Vermont and reconnecting with family and friends from New England. We spent a week at Gove Hill Retreat Center which is run by the American Baptist Churches of Vt. & NH. Our warmest thanks go out to Bernice and Bill for their hospitality. This week proved a wonderful time of rest, relaxation and refocusing our eyes on what God is calling us to work on in the next year. We feel strongly we need to create a program to "Celebrate Love" among couples affected by disabilities. Watch out for more details in future Newsletters.

In August, we traveled to New York City to celebrate 25 years of marriage. It was a fun filled trip with many old memories rekindled and lots of new ones to treasure. We especially found the 9/11 memorial a humbling experience. It was a vivid reminder of the need for forgiveness and to reach all with the saving power of Jesus Christ.

Upcoming Projects

- ◆ Here is a quick peak at the projects Seek the Son is working on:
- ◆ "Community day event" sponsored by Herbergers is an excellent fundraiser that allows us to spread the word about the ministry. The event is on November 9th and 10th. Books are currently on sale for $5. These coupon books contain over $400 in saving. This year you can not only shop online; you can also purchase the books online. The entire $5 goes to Seek the Son. For more info go to our website, www.seektheson.org.
- ◆ An internet worship experience remains a high priority. The goal is to reach homebound individuals. We eventually want this service streamed live in order to promote real time interaction. Initially these services will be recorded.
- ◆ A coffee shop acoustic concert is planned for February and will feature Ginny Owens and local talent.. We are honored to partner with Walk Right In Ministries. Look out for more details.
- ◆ "From the Heart" provides encouragement through handmade crafts and inspirational media. We are delighted and grateful for Krafter's Korner of the National Federation of the Blind. They designated Seek the Son as their nonprofit for the upcoming year. Blind crafters from around the globe will donate items to help us reach more families.

As we look at the past months and forward to the next days.....we are reminded how God is love. This love is powerful and life sustaining. This love mirrors Jesus and stands for acceptance, forgiveness and the need to humble ourselves. We earnestly pray Seek the Son continues to minister to those hurting with this kind of love.
