Seek The Son

March
2009

*"When times are good,
You should be cheerful;
When times are bad,
think what it means.
God makes them both
to keep us from knowing what will happen next.*

Ecc1. 7:14

This nugget of truth from the Word of God sends a powerful message to all of us in this time of economic uncertainty. Seek the Son Ministries Inc. counts our blessings and challenges as ways of growing and glorifying our mighty God. We give thanks to all of you for your faithfulness in giving, praying and serving. We also want to reassure you; we pray for you regularly and acknowledge each of our partnerships as a God honoring endeavor. We realize your circumstances might seem unclear, but please remember God is in control!

Seek the Son Ministries plans on several day outings this summer. We also look forward to hosting a week-end retreat on the topic of Seeking Freedom. Please continue to check back at our websites or in your mailbox for more details as they become available. We hope to host a picnic in June, a trip to Fort Snelling Historical Museum and on September 3rd attend the Minnesota State Fair and enjoy a day of fun and an evening of worship with Casting Crowns. These mini trips will include trained volunteers to meet the needs of the disabled. We pray it helps facilitate networking and enjoyment of some of the amazing attractions around the Twin Cities.

Our Fall Retreat will consist of a spiritual adventure on learning to seek freedom with God's love.

Seek the Son is also working diligently to build its financial resources to help match grants. It remains our ultimate goal to bring the saving power of Jesus Christ to the disabled Community. In the process of meeting this mission we still believe God wants us to open a year round retreat center. As an established 501c(3) faith-based organization, we now spend a great deal of time writing grants to buy this property. Our obedience to this call from God has blessed us in several ways even through this tough time in America. We want to provide multiple ways to help partner with the ministry. These include:

- Pledge a monthly donation to help with general operating costs as well as to purchase property for the retreat center.
- Collect cell phones! We receive money! If you live in the Twin Cities please drop any old cell phones at the Taylor's home or if you live farther away we can send postage paid labels to just put on a box and send directly to the company. This fund raiser can be done on an individual level or a group level.
- Think of how many times we look something up on the internet. Well, if you use www.goodsearch.com Seek the Son will receive a penny per search. Also, if you buy online, you could use "good shop", a link on good search, and Seek the Son receives a portion of your purchase. It is an awesome way to earn cash.
- If you love to make crafts or buy crafts, please check out www.seektheson.org for a link to the store. All proceeds will benefit Seek the Son Ministries, Inc.
- We look forward to sharing our passion with people on an individual level. Please consider being a host family for dessert and a presentation on the ministry. We need financial support, volunteers, craft items and most importantly prayer!

Finally, please continue to pray for Theresa as she works on her doctorate projects. She needs to finish two projects from before the medical leave and then this summer she will embark on two more fascinating studies. Her main theme evolves around reconciliation and the disabled into the body of Christ. Many individuals believe this reconciliation needs to happen out of charity, but God clearly tells us all are welcome to the Great Banquet. If you want to learn more about her studies or discuss this topic please feel free to call or send an e-mail.

God longs to be in constant communication with His people. Please lift Seek the Son Ministries up to our heavenly father for the following:

- For Seek the Son Ministries' upcoming summer outreaches
- For our fall retreat in Duluth, MN.
- For individuals to fill the volunteer positions we have available.
- For God's wisdom in growing the board.

God is always with us and He knows already what we need and where we are going. He has shown His love for us as He listens and answers our prayers:

- God has given us direction as to which grants to apply for.
- God has given Theresa the direction to go with her school projects.
- The sense of peace within our house and our hearts in knowing we are doing God's will.

We feel your prayers and welcome them all the more. It is wonderful to know how God's people care for us and our ministry through their prayers.
