loss a system known as CART was utilized. This involved a person transcribing the class word for word and then the transcript would be sent to Theresa's Braille display and only seconds after the words were spoken; Theresa accessed them through Braille. This allowed her to participate fully in the classes. We believe this represents the first time this technology has been used. We thank Paradigm for their incredible perseverance in making this possible!

I will say it again: Rejoice!”*

Minnesota and June represent the time of year for camping, thunderstorms and enjoyment of God's creatures. Seek the Son Ministries Inc. hosted its pilot retreat: Seek the Joy. What an awesome experience of glorifying God and bringing disabilities together to form the Body of Christ. Our main speaker, Jon Nasby, came in from Florida and shared his gift of reciting passages of the Bible from memory. Our main text was the book of Philippians. As guests and John arrived on the first evening; they were welcomed by the finest Minnesota has to offer; a severe thunderstorm warning. The staff had all ready gone through 4 such warnings in the last day, so they were pros!

57 participants made this pilot retreat a success! We thank one and all for their willingness to help Seek the Son grow. If you want to learn more about the retreat, please contact us. We have so many stories to share. Oh Yes...God's creatures... This living thing was taking up residence under Ken and Theresa's bed.

ACB Convention

We delighted in the privilege of hosting the ecumenical service for the national convention for the American Council of the Blind. It was an opportunity to worship with people from across the country here in Minneapolis. We also learned about a great new sport known as Power Showdown. We know this will become part of the furniture of our retreat center.

Power Showdown

Theresa began her first classes in the doctorate program at Bethel Seminary. Due to her hearing

Ken and Theresa participated in Special Touch Getaway in Alexandria, MN. This included many activities from the dice game, selling items at the store, ministering to guests who just came to know the Lord and many opportunities to share our vision to open a year round retreat. This week reminded us in many ways of the need for this facility and to remain obedient to God's will.

During the retreat: God protected Nick from a terrible spider bite. No, it was not the one taking residence up under Ken and Theresa's bed, but a brown recluse spider, which probably made its way in through produce. Nick became very ill with cellulitis, and is still struggling with colitis and liver difficulties. This was a blow to him entering his senior year, but all of us acknowledge God's hand in this circumstance. As our beginning verse reminds us; we need to rejoice in all circumstances and this includes the very difficult ones.

UPCOMING EVENTS

We are excited for the events planned for this fall. We will host a benefit concert and dinner. Visit our website www.seektheson.org for more info.

We also will host our second annual great banquet celebration featuring "Christmas Presence".

We continue to collect used ink cartridges and cell phones for instant funds for the ministry.
